Introducing Homecoming 1972

This year's homecoming was entitled "Imagination Unlimited," and that it was. The queen candidates, Joy Morris, Cindy Monroe, Joellen Burnett, and Trudy Herron, shared many of the exciting moments that go along with homecoming. As "A Summer Place" was played, they entered the gym and neared the throne of the retiring queen, Lois Hacker.

Everyone's anxiety finally came to a very happy end when Cindy Monroe was crowned 1971 Homecoming Queen.

All of the candidates were varsity cheerleaders, and their closeness throughout this event was one not to be forgotten. "Willingness to help in every way" is the phrase to describe their friendship.

Queen Cindy Monroe

CINDY, seldom seen without a smile, has the innocence and vitality of youth.

Joy Morris

As many of JOY's friends have said, this pretty young lady's name describes her.

Joellen Burnett

JO's colorful personality and cheerful nature are her trade-mark.

Trudy Herron

Positively zany, happy, and outgoing, TRUDY is one of a kind.

Attendants

Jr. - Lisa Kiefer and Mike O'Keefe
(escort)

Soph. - Candy Carrel and Alan
Heal (escort)

Frosh. - Sue Camden and Bobby
Throgmorton (escort)

Retiring Queen

Miss Lois Hacker was last year's Homecoming Queen. Here she is with her escort Larry Trover, and Cindy's Court. LITTLE GIRLS: Carrie Crews and Valerie Kinkade. LITTLE BOYS: Kevin Breeden and Timmy West.

Mistress and Master of Ceremonies -
Rosemary McCuan and Greg Blackwell.

Kathy Wells - Pianist

Debbie Chester - Pianist

Homecoming is lots of things - it's poster parties, campaigning for your favorite queen candidate, making floats and decorations, the burning of a Centurion at the bonfire, the parade, the excitement of the ball-game and tenseness of the coronation.

It's by far the biggest activity of our school year and a time when people get together to work hardest and spirit runs highest.

This is VHS HOMECOMING . . .

VHS Majorettes

Myra Wood, Soph.

The Vienna High School majorettes have had an exceptionally good team of girls this year. They have participated in many different types of functions. Besides marching in several parades they twirled at basketball games and at the All-School Talent Program.

With only two of the girls graduating, we should be able to look forward to a good team of majorettes next year.

The '71-'72 Eagles put together the most successful team at VHS in 5 years. After dropping 3 of the first 4 the Eagles caught fire and won 15 out of 20 including the championship trophies at the Shawnee Invitational tourney and the Conference tourney. The team brought back the recognition in sports that VHS had lost in the past losing campaigns, proving themselves capable of beating any team in the area. The Eagles lose only 3 seniors this year and with some promising players moving up from the very successful underclass teams, Vienna should be a worthy opponent for anyone in the seasons ahead.

The Eagles turned in a fine campaign in 71-72 as they won 14 while losing only 6. Great drive and determination was the key to the Eagles success as they always fought hard. The team finished 2nd in the conference with a 9-4 record and won the conference tourney with an exciting extra inning victory over Shawnee. The team also finished 2nd in the district falling to a very fine Metropolis club. Brad Lee hit .437 for the club and socked 4 home runs. Also above .400 was Larry Jones at .406. The mound chores were handled by Hill and Dunn as they went every other game.

ACTIVITIES

All-School Play

"Miss Dill From Dippyville"

This year's play kept the audience guessing as to when Donald Dutton would be caught in all his lies. The plot revolved around Donald, his forgotten wife, a new girlfriend, and the mysterious lady visitor.

The play cast did a great job, and everyone was sorry to see it end.

There is more to making a good play than the audience sees. Here are the poeple who worked "behind the scenes."

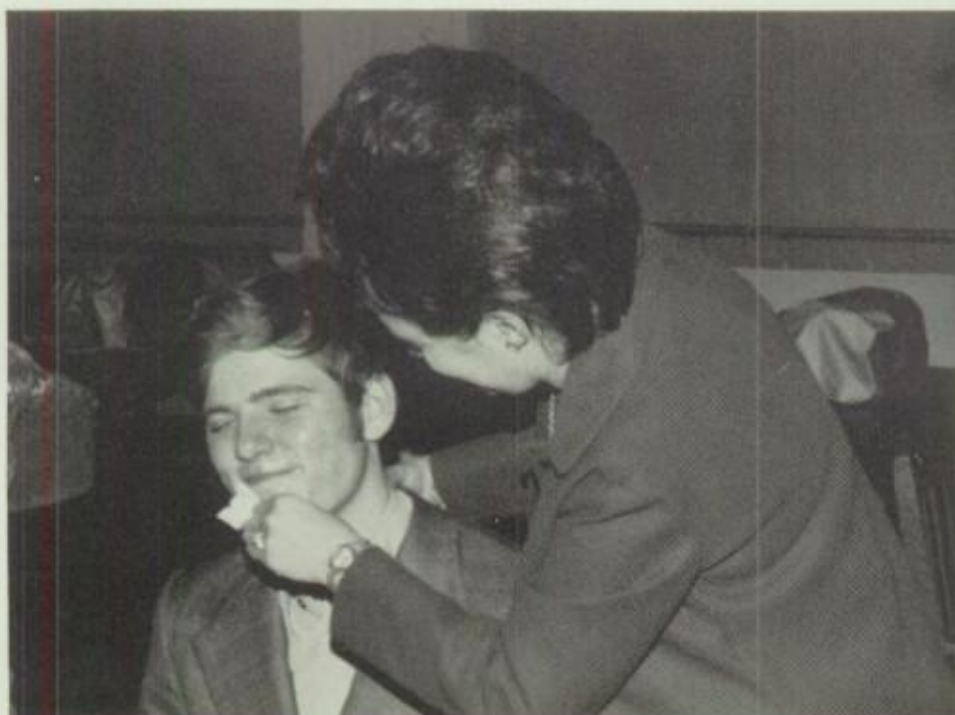

Mrs. Arnold was the play's talented director again this year.

Student Director:	Rosemary McCuan
State Manager:	Steve Gage
Stage Crew:	Roger McBride David Rockwell
Make-Up:	Lisa Rehberger Debbie Jones Ruth Ann Veach Teri Throgmorton Vickie Wilson
Prompters:	Carolyn Brady Phyllis Fowler Teri Hook Teri Throgmorton

Ushers for "Miss Dill From Dippyville" were Sarah Porter, Gregg Elkins, Kelly Smith, David Rockwell, Debbie Webb, Tim Gray, LeAnn King, and John Summers.

Spring Prom April 22

Pictured above are the candidates and attendants who were chosen on how much work each contributed to the FHA Chapter during the year. They are as follows: (Left to Right) Joy Duer (Frosh. candidate), Kenneth Duer (escort), Debbie Jennings (retiring queen), David Wright (escort), LeAnn King (Jr. candidate), Ross Hill (escort), Vickie Wilson (Sr. candidate), Jim Moore (escort). Nancy Cooper (queen), John Summers (escort), Linda Carlton (Sr. attendant), Jay Merchant (escort), Denise Mason (Jr. attendant), Ronny Jackson (escort), Janett Chester (Soph. attendant), Steve Gage (escort), Tina Gulley (Frosh. attendant), Bobby Throgmorton (escort).

Busy and excited, the FHA girls along with Mrs. Hodges, their sponsor, again set the scene for the annual spring dance. During school on Friday before the dance, the student body voted for queen and on Saturday night, Nancy Cooper of the Sophomore class was crowned this year's FHA Prom Queen. Theme of the dance was "Garden of Memories" and the "Mothers' Lode" was the band. Master of Ceremonies was Jack Thorton.
